

studio - high tech

new frontiers - creating fresh and punchy images

There are numerous aspects that go into making a great shot. My style of work blends particularly well with creatives / clients looking for a new dimension with an added touch of difference. Much of my work revolves around high tech studio applications introducing variable “design or colour play“ elements to my work. Standard pack shot photography is also available for catalogue and brochure purposes.

www.shootdigital.co.za